IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS:

E-MAIL PRE-ADVICE: AUSTRALIAN CUSTOMS insist on specific information 72 hours prior to the arrival of the vessel in the *first port in Australia, so it is important to know the first port of arrival and it's arrival date, or otherwise send your pre-alert to the Bluefreight at least 10 days prior to arrival.

Documents required are as follows:

- Ocean Bill of Lading or Co-Load Master Bill of Lading each showing the container and seal number.
- House Bill of Lading.
- Packing Declaration.
- Fumigation certificate, not required, if packing declaration stipulates that ISPM15 timber has been used.
- Commercial invoice, if available.

---

Non-Compliance will result in delays upon arrival and failure to comply with these Australian Customs requirements will attract an automatic minimum penalty of AU$ 1300.00 (approx US$ 900.00) per error and this penalty from Australian Customs, will be invoiced to your office.
